Terms and Conditions

1. All terms and conditions are subject to change.
2. All fees that are paid to American Grading Company (AGC) are non-refundable once the order begins. The order will start being processed after payment and receiving the order. If there are any counterfeit/altered cards that are sent in they will not be graded and the party is still charged for the service.
3. AGC is not liable for any damage or lost cards while not in their possession. AGC will provide tracking with USPS Priority Mail via email once the shipment is mailed. Insurance is available but not required it is up to the customer. Our team is committed to packaging items securely. We have been mailing cards for decades and be assured of professional and safe packaging.
4. AGC will provide their collectors with care, affordable, thorough, and consistent grading. There may be an occasional typo and if that is the case we will fix it.
5. AGC is not responsible for returning items sent with insufficient funds or inadequate contact information.
